

BECOME AN AMBASSADOR FOR YOUR COMPANY

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Join the UnitedAg Ambassador Program and become an influential force for positive change!

Our network is designed to empower health ambassadors like you to make a lasting impact on the well-being of your peers and the future of our organization.

By engaging in this network, participants play a vital role in driving meaningful change within the UnitedAg organization and health plan programs. Additionally, we offer valuable resources and unwavering support to employers who share our passion for preventative health. Our ultimate goal is to utilize boots-on-the-ground feedback to shape a healthier future for member communities.

REQUIREMENTS

- Ambassadors' employer must be a UnitedAg Member
- Ambassadors should be an influential presence in their organization, not by title, but a person whose peers look for guidance or direction.
- Ambassadors should be able to commit to 5-6 virtual bi-monthly meetings and one in-person event.

BENEFITS

- Inspire preventive changes among peers.
- Gain networking and leadership skills through hands-on practice.
- Receive exclusive invitations to annual conferences and training sessions.
- Qualify for prestigious annual awards.
- Earn program recognition to enhance college applications or resumes.
